

Raksha Bandhan Greetings of the Governor of Nagaland

Nagaland governor, P.B. Acharya greeted the people of Nagaland on the occasion of “Raksha Bandhan”. Raksha Bandhan is an occasion where sisters tie a Rakhi to the brother's and pray for their long life. Governor observed this system is to strengthen the family ties. On this occasion, Governor called upon all sections of people to reiterate our goal in building a powerful prosperous, peaceful India. The Governor, further, urged the people to stand united and economically strengthen the state for a peaceful and prosperous Nagaland.

Governor has also appealed to the people to stop discrimination manifested through gender biased sex selection, and post birth discrimination against girl child. To sponsor girl child under Bati Bachao Beti Padhao Scheme (save daughter, educate daughter) to save and empower the girl child by sponsoring a girl who can be educated by Rs. 2,500/- per year. Anyone willing to sponsor can deposit the amount as per their desire to SBI A/C No. 35843617072 in favour of Beti Bachao Beti Badhao scheme SBI Kohima main branch, IFSC : SBIN000214. Once deposited Raj Bhavan, Kohima may be contacted.

Further the Governor has appealed to the people to support the 33% reservation for women which is mandatory as per the Constitution. The Government has taken the right step in empowering the women and giving them opportunity in every field of life including in the field of politics.