MESSAGE

I extend my warm greetings on the occasion of Id-Ul-Zuha to all the Muslim brothers and sisters in Nagaland.

Id-Ul-Zuha is one of the greatest festivals of Islam. It is a festival that the followers of the religion celebrate with special prayers, greetings and gifts. It is also referred to as the festival of sacrifice.

I appeal to all to observe the festival in the true spirit of celebration, irrespective of religious barriers, in an atmosphere of peace and by exchanging feelings of fraternity, trust and goodwill among all upholding the renowned tradition of unity amongst the people of different religions and cultures of the region.
