

Governor meets administrators, business community in Dimapur

Nagaland Governor PB Acharya on Monday appealed to all groups and organisations, including churches, administrators and business communities to sort out their differences and work together for a peaceful Nagaland.

The Governor while interacting with business community and officials of Dimapur district administration at DC's Conference Hall, said that, the problems and grievances faced by the countrymen are multi faced. "All groups should come with an understanding spirit to resolve their issues with mutual cooperation and understanding", he said.

While acknowledging the business community, the Governor also encouraged them to explore new avenues for the betterment of the city.

Earlier, Governor Acharya was apprised of various grievances faced by the business community in Dimapur. He also interacted with senior officials of Dimapur district administration.

Earlier in the morning, the Governor visited the Dimapur Central Jail.
