GOVERNOR EXTENDS SÜKRÜNYE GREETINGS

The Governor of Nagaland and Meghalaya, Shri RN Ravi extends greetings to the people of Nagaland especially the Chakhesang community on the occasion of Sükrünye festival.

Governor Ravi stated that Sükrünye is one of the most significant festivals of the Chakhesang community and wished the community prosperity in all spheres of life and prayed to Almighty to bring about success to the people of the State in general. He observed that the rich culture and tradition of the Nagas need to be preserved and promoted while keeping pace with the modernity.

He added that the festival should be a source for building unity and called upon everyone to come together in our common enterprise of building a happy and prosperous Nagaland.
