TULUNI GREETING

I extend warm Tuluni greetings to my Sumi brothers and sisters and to the people of Nagaland.

Tuluni is celebrated to welcome the bountiful season of the year. Tuluni is a time to re-strengthen family and social bonds and to celebrate new relationships.

May Tuluni festival remind us of our ancestors who found strength in one another, in good and bad times. I hope the Sumi youths will come together as a community and continue to unite and build the Nagas to overcome the challenge we are facing today.

Let us celebrate observing COVID-19 appropriate behaviour at all times.

On this auspicious occasion, I wish you all good health, happiness and prosperity. God bless Nagaland!
