MIMKUT GREETINGS

I extend warm Mimkut greetings to my Kuki brothers and sisters and to the people of Nagaland.

This festival express exhilaration and triumphant over the harvest of Mim (Maize) which is the last harvest crop of the season. During the celebration, Kuki community exhibits their magnificent traditions and customs, their ethnic culture are also expressed through art work that represent their roots. This festival is also a time to remember the loss of our loved ones.

I urge everyone to celebrate this beautiful festival by observing the Covid-19 SOPs.

On this auspicious occasion, May God bless you all with a healthy and a prosperous life.
